CITY OF OAKLAND; OAKLAND POLICE DEPARTMENT; SUSAN MANHEIMER, in her official capacity; and ED REISKIN, in his official capacity, Defendants/Respondents.

Case No.

VERIFIED CLASS ACTION PETITION FOR WRIT OF MANDATE AND CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT FOR DECLARATORY AND INJUNCTIVE RELIEF TO ENFORCE CALIFORNIA PUBLIC RECORDS ACT

Plaintiffs/Petitioners Scott Morris, Sarah Belle Lin, Brian Krans, Michael Katz and Oakland Privacy (collectively, "Plaintiffs") individually, as citizens, as associations and/or as taxpayers, and on behalf of a putative Class, petition this Court for a writ of mandate and plead for injunctive and declaratory relief requiring Defendants/Respondents the City of Oakland, the Oakland Police Department ("OPD"), Susan Manheimer, OPD's interim chief of police, and Ed Reiskin, Oakland's City Administrator (collectively, "Defendants"), to comply with the timeframes required for a records disclosure determination under the California Public Records Act ("PRA"), Government Code sections 6250 et seq. and the Oakland Sunshine Ordinance, Oakland Mun. Code sections 2.20.010 et seq., and to promptly produce records where OPD has determined it is in possession of disclosable records.

INTRODUCTION

- 1. In the wake of the police killing of George Floyd in Minneapolis, Minnesota, the United States has commenced a long-overdue national reckoning regarding the role of the police in our society. Yet during this historic moment, OPD is thwarting transparency. OPD has thousands of open PRA requests, including requests for documents related to police shootings, use-of-force incidents, electronic surveillance, hate crimes data, budget allocation and more. OPD must not be allowed to flout transparency and civilian oversight.
- 2. The PRA and the Oakland Sunshine Ordinance mandate strict deadlines for local agencies like OPD to respond to requests for public records. After requesters submit document requests, an agency must provide a determination whether it possesses disclosable records within ten days, unless a statutory extension is invoked, in which case it may extend the deadline by fourteen days.
- 3. The determination must state (1) whether responsive records exist, (2) whether the agency will be withholding records on the basis of a statutory exemption to disclosure, including the applicable statute, and (3) an estimated date when records will be released.
 - 4. Once a determination is made, records must be promptly disclosed.
- 5. The PRA thus contemplates that determinations are individualized: agencies must evaluate and provide a reasoned response to each request.
 - 6. Despite these clear mandates, OPD routinely and systematically ignores the law.
- 7. In the last two years alone, OPD has not provided a sufficient determination in response to approximately half of its PRA requests. Instead, it either provides no response or sends out a legally-deficient boilerplate response that fails to disclose (1) whether responsive records exist and (2) whether OPD will be withholding documents based on a specific statutory exemption. The boilerplate response typically states:

Our agency is in the process of reviewing your requested records to determine what information can be released in accordance with the California Public Records Act. All records must be reviewed and in some cases redaction may be necessary. Due to the Department's limited staffing resources and numerous public records requests received, our agency needs additional time to respond to your request. All records that are not exempt with be provided within 30 days.

- 8. While OPD's boilerplate language commits to providing records within thirty days, it is a hollow promise. OPD has not met its self-imposed thirty-day deadline in thousands of cases, and routinely extends its "deadline" every thirty days.
- 9. OPD thus lulls requesters into a false sense that it is actively compiling records when in fact it is not. In many cases, including some requests submitted by Plaintiffs, OPD has invoked thirty-day extensions found nowhere in the PRA or the Oakland Sunshine Ordinance— dozens of times, thus extending its "deadline" by years. One PRA request with OPD dates back to 2014 and has thirty-three separate deadline changes, the last of which was communicated in 2016.
- 10. OPD refuses to implement policies and procedures to ensure PRA and Oakland Sunshine Ordinance compliance. By forcing persistent inquiries and threats of litigation, OPD discourages the public from submitting and following up on requests for information, including the Plaintiffs named herein.
- 11. Plaintiffs, the Class, and residents of Oakland are thus denied timely and important information about OPD's operations.
- 12. OPD's failure is not for lack of resources. OPD receives over $300 million from the City's general fund, over 40% of the City's general fund budget.
- 13. OPD's disregard for the PRA and the Oakland Sunshine Ordinance is an affront to government transparency, police accountability and the rights of public access enshrined in the California Constitution.

¹ "You will receive an update by December 31, 2016" notes the latest entry. See https://oaklandca.nextrequest.com/requests/RT-6059 (last checked August 10, 2020).

- 14. Plaintiffs seek relief to compel OPD's compliance with the PRA for all requestors. Their experiences are exemplary of OPD's disregard for transparency.
- 15. Plaintiffs Scott Morris, Sarah Belle Lin and Brian Krans are all East Bay journalists who regularly cover OPD. Collectively, OPD has ignored dozens of their PRA requests.
- 16. Plaintiff Oakland Privacy is a regional citizens coalition that works to defend the right to privacy and enhance public transparency regarding government surveillance. Plaintiff Michael Katz is its Director of Research. OPD has frustrated their efforts to understand police operations by failing to respond to a number Katz's PRA requests.
- 17. OPD must do better. OPD cannot disregard the PRA during this moment of national reflection on the role of police in our society. Plaintiffs bring this action to compel OPD to clear its PRA backlog and to ensure that OPD provides timely determinations going forward.

PARTIES

18. Plaintiff/Petitioner Scott Morris has been a journalist in Oakland since 2011. His work on criminal justice and civil rights has appeared in the East Bay Express, Oakland Magazine, the Appeal and Berkeleyside. He is currently a member of the ProPublica Local Reporting Network. He regularly writes about OPD as part of his reporting. Past stories include coverage of OPD's staff shortages and its desperate recruitment of officers later involved in serious incidents of misconduct,² an analysis of a drop in officer-involved shootings from 2009 to 2016,³ and a profile of decorated officer Ersie Joyner.⁴ Morris is an Oakland resident and pays sales and other taxes to the City, and has done so within the last year. Morris routinely submits PRA requests to OPD and will continue to do so in the future.

- 20. Plaintiff Brian Krans is an award-winning investigative reporter and audio producer who reports on criminal justice, government, and public health in the East Bay. His work about police and first responders has appeared in Oakland North, the East Bay Express, Oakland Magazine, KQED, The California Report, The Appeal, and Berkeleyside. Krans is an Oakland resident who pays sales and other taxes to the City, and has done so within the last year. Krans routinely submits PRA requests to OPD and will continue to do so in the future.
- 21. Plaintiff Oakland Privacy is a citizens coalition that works regionally to defend the right to privacy, and enhance public transparency and oversight regarding government surveillance. Oakland Privacy was instrumental in the creation of the first standing municipal citizens' privacy advisory commission in the City of Oakland. Oakland Privacy's members are experts on municipal privacy reform, and have written use policies and impact reports for a variety of surveillance technologies. Oakland Privacy's members routinely submit PRA requests to OPD and will continue to do so in the future.
- 22. Plaintiff Michael Katz is the Director of Research for Oakland Privacy. Katz has worked on issues of law enforcement and surveillance since 2010. His work has involved filing hundreds of public records requests and has been featured in the Wall Street Journal, San Francisco Chronicle, Forbes, and the Intercept. Katz is a San Leandro resident. Katz routinely submits PRA requests and will continue to do so in the future.
- 23. Defendant/Respondent City of Oakland is a California Charter City pursuant to California Constitution Article XI, section 3. It is a local agency under Government Code § 6252(a).

- 24. Defendant/Respondent Oakland Police Department is a law enforcement agency in the City of Oakland. It is a local agency under Government Code § 6252(a). Respondent Oakland Police Department created and/or retains the records sought here.
- 25. Defendant/Respondent Susan Manheimer is the Interim Chief of Police of the Oakland Police.
- 26. Defendant Ed Reiskin is the Oakland City Administrator. Pursuant to the Oakland Sunshine Ordinance, he is tasked with administering and coordinating the implementation of the Ordinance for all local bodies, agencies and departments under his authority, responsibility and control.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

- 27. Jurisdiction is proper in this Court pursuant to Government Code sections 6258 and 6259, which provide that any person may institute proceedings for injunctive or declaratory relief, or a writ of mandate, in any court of competent jurisdiction to enforce his right to receive a copy of any public record. Jurisdiction is also proper under Code of Civil Procedure section 1085, which provides that a writ of mandate may be issued by any court to compel the performance of an act that the law specifically enjoins.
- 28. Venue is proper in this Court because the City of Oakland and OPD are located within this County and the records in question, or some portion of them, are situated within this County. Gov't Code § 6259(a). Venue is also proper under Code of Civil Procedure section 393(b), as this action is brought against Manheimer and Reiskin, public officers, for acts done in virtue of their offices within the Alameda County.

GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

THE PUBLIC RECORDS ACT AND THE OAKLAND SUNSHINE ORDINANCE

- 29. Oakland residents and all others interested in the conduct of the City are entitled to inspect public records under three interrelated sources.
- 30. First, Article I, section 3 of the California Constitution declares that the people have the "right of access to information concerning the conduct of the people's business," and that "the writings of public officials and agencies shall be open to public scrutiny." It continues that statutes must be "broadly construed" if they "furthe[r] the people's right of access" and "narrowly construed if [they] limi[t] the right of access." See also National Lawyers Guild v. City of Hayward, 9 Cal.5th 488, 507 (2020).

- 31. Second, the PRA provides that "access to information concerning the conduct of the people's business is a fundamental and necessary right of every person in this state." Gov't Code § 6250. Subject to certain exemptions, see id. at §§ 6254, 6255, the PRA broadly provides that "every person has a right to inspect any public record." Id. at 6253(a). "Public records" include "any writing containing information relating to the conduct of the public's business prepared, owned, used, or retained by any state or local agency regardless of physical form or characteristics." Id. at 6252(e). "Writing" is defined broadly and means "any handwriting, typewriting, printing, photostating, photographing, photocopying, transmitting or electronic mail or facsimile, and every other means of recording upon any tangible thing any form of communication or representation, including letters, words, pictures, sounds, or symbols, or combinations thereof, and any record thereby created, regardless of the manner in which the record has been stored." Id. at § 6252(g).
- 32. Third, the Oakland Sunshine Ordinance declares that "A government's duty is to serve the public and in reaching its decisions to accommodate those who wish to obtain information." Oakland Mun. Code § 2.20.010(A). It continues that "the city's operations are open to the public." Id. at (B).
- 33. The PRA and the Oakland Sunshine Ordinance (which incorporates the PRA by reference) contain strict deadlines for an agency to make a determination whether responsive documents exist. An agency must "within 10 days from receipt of the request, determine whether the request, in whole or in part, seeks copies of disclosable public records in the possession of the agency." Gov't Code § 6253(c). An agency is required to "promptly notify the person making the request of the determination and the reasons therefor." Id. Only in "unusual circumstances," as defined by the statute, may an agency extend this deadline and in no event beyond 14 days. Id.
- 34. The Oakland Sunshine Ordinance goes further. It requires that determinations be communicated in writing, including a citation to all relevant legal authority justifying any

1 redaction or withholding. Oakland Mun. Code § 2.20.050. If documents are redacted, the 2 Oakland Sunshine Ordinance requires that the redactions be "keyed by footnote or other clear 3 reference to the appropriate justification for withholding." Id. at 2.20.240. The redaction must 4 be personally performed by the attorney or staff member conducting the exemption review. Id. 5 OAKLAND'S NEXT REQUEST PLATFORM 6 35. The City of Oakland uses the online vendor "NextRequest" as a portal for PRA 7 requests. 8 36. Requesters can submit PRA requests through the NextRequest Oakland website. 9 https://oaklandca.nextrequest.com. 10 37. The portal enables requesters to select the city agency to whom their request is 11 directed, including the OPD. 12 38. Each request submitted through NextRequest is given a number. 13 39. On information and belief, the overwhelming majority of PRA requests to OPD 14 are submitted through NextRequest. 15 40. NextRequest allows the public to view a list of prior requests, including the ability 16 to filter requests between "open" and "closed" requests; search the text of requests; review 17 documents produced by the city (where they have been uploaded to NextRequest); and sort 18 requests by City department. 19 41. As of this writing, over 42,000 public records act requests have been submitted to 20 the Oakland through Nextrequest and its preceding system RecordTrac since the City started 21 using an online portal for records requests in 2013, including over 26,000 requests to OPD.⁵ 22 OPD ROUTINELY FAILS TO ADEQUATELY RESPOND TO PRA REQUESTS 23 42. A review of the NextRequest platform reveals numerous instances in which OPD 24 has not provided a timely PRA determination in response to significant inquiries regarding 25 matters of urgent public concern. 26 ⁵ When the City of Oakland switched to the Nextrequest system in 2018, it said it would help 27 improve responsiveness to requests. "While we loved RecordTrac, we love transparency more," a city official wrote in a tweet. See https://twitter.com/Oakland/status/976983497830092800 (last 28

- 43. As of this writing, over 5,700 requests to OPD remain "open," some dating back as far as 2014.
- In the vast majority of these cases, OPD has either ignored the request or provided requesters with an inadequate boilerplate response. Worst of all, OPD has not collected or
- Plaintiffs' experiences recounted below are emblematic of OPD's disdain for
 - Plaintiff Scott Morris is an East Bay journalist who routinely covers OPD.
- As part of his reporting, Morris routinely submits PRA requests to the City of
 - OPD routinely fails to provide timely determinations in response to his requests.
- For example, on April 15, 2020, Morris submitted request number 20-1900, seeking "the full name and occupation of every individual arrested by the agency," including certain biographical information about the arrestees and information concerning the timing and circumstances of the arrests which is specified as releasable under Gov't Code § 6254(f)(1). A true and correct copy of this request, including OPD's responses thereto, is included herewith as
- He sought this information over a narrow ten-week period, from February 1, 2020
 - Morris received a boilerplate response from OPD on April 27, 2020, which stated: "Our agency is in the process of reviewing your requested records to determine what information can be released in accordance with the California Public Records Act. All records must be reviewed and in some cases redaction may be necessary. Due to the Department's limited staffing resources and numerous public records requests received, our agency needs additional time to respond to your request. All records that are not exempt with be provided within 30 days." Id.
- That same day, Morris notified OPD that "the city needs to provide some kind of reasoning for such a long delay on a simple request," making clear that OPD's boilerplate

53. Since that date, OPD has extended its deadline for production three times. To date, Morris has not received a determination on whether responsive records exist or the specific exemptions that might apply. Id.

- 54. Morris had requested the records to determine whether law enforcement agencies had changed booking procedures in response to the COVID-19 pandemic. He simultaneously filed identical requests with twelve other law enforcement agencies in Alameda County. By June 2, all but OPD and the Alameda County Sheriff's Office had provided records.
- 55. While Morris has received responses from OPD to other PRA requests, Morris typically faces significant difficulty in obtaining records from OPD. For instance, in February 2019 Morris submitted a request for records related to the internal affairs investigations of officers David McLaughlin or Ryan McLaughlin. He did not receive a determination from OPD until October 2019.
- 56. Morris is typically required to follow up with OPD information officers multiple times before he receives a records determination or responsive records. This process typically takes months far longer than the "prompt" disclosure requirements of the PRA.

Sarah Belle Lin

- 57. Lin is an East Bay journalist who routinely covers OPD.
- 58. As part of her reporting, Lin routinely submits PRA requests to the City of Oakland and OPD.
 - 59. OPD routinely fails to provide a timely determination.
- 60. On October 4, 2019, Lin filed a request number 19-4932, seeking all incident reports from OPD regarding the Safeway grocery store and the adjacent parking lot at 3747 Grand Ave. Lin requested this information as she heard reports from customers of robberies and vehicle break-ins at the store. On October 14, 2019, OPD sent Lin its standard boilerplate response, saying it needed an additional 30 days to fulfill her request. Since that time, OPD has extended its "deadline" seven additional times, with a current deadline of August 24, 2020. No records have been produced in response to this request. A true and correct copy of this request is included herewith as Exhibit 2.

61. On May 27, 2020, Lin filed request number 20-2800, seeking records of complaints to OPD via 911 and its 311 Hate Crimes Hotline categorized as anti-Asian hate incidents, from January 2019 through May 1, 2020. Lin requested the records to determine if there had been a rise in complaints to OPD regarding anti-Asian hate incidents in Oakland during the COVID-19 pandemic. On June 8, 2020, OPD sent Lin its standard boilerplate response, saying it needed an additional thirty days to fulfill her request. OPD changed the "due date" for production to June 8, 2020. It has not provided any records or any additional response since that time. No records have been produced in response to this request. A true and correct copy of this request is included herewith as Exhibit 3.

- 62. On May 31, 2020, amidst anti-police protests in the wake of the George Floyd killing, Lin submitted request number 20-2891, seeking all documents related to the mutual aid agreements between OPD and the Contra Costa Sheriff's Office, including any documents related to protocols for how to treat members of the press at such demonstrations. OPD has not sent Lin its standard boilerplate response; instead, it has merely noted a "due date change" three times, saying its due date is now August 24, 2020. No records have been produced in response to this request. A true and correct copy of this request is included herewith as Exhibit 4.
- 63. On June 8, 2020, amidst anti-police protests in the wake of the George Floyd killing, Lin submitted request number 20-3113, seeking all documents related to complaints and/or reports to OPD regarding use of force by OPD and other law enforcement agencies called to Oakland under mutual aid agreements to provide backup during the George Floyd protests from May 29, 2020 to June 8, 2020. OPD has not sent Lin its standard boilerplate response; instead, it has merely noted a "due date change" two times, saying its due date is now July 24, 2020. (As of August 18, 2020, OPD has not updated its due date since July 24, 2020.) A true and correct copy of this request is included herewith as Exhibit 5.
- 64. The same day, Lin also submitted request number 20-3116 for documents and video footage related to "the discharge of non-lethal projectiles at individuals at the Oakland protest on Telegraph Avenue between the intersections of 16th Street between 11:15 p.m [sic] and 11:30 p.m. on Saturday, May 30." OPD has not sent Lin its standard boilerplate response; instead, it has merely noted a "due date change" three times, saying its due date is now August 24, 2020. No records have been produced in response to this request. A true and correct copy of this request is included herewith as Exhibit 6.

- On June 29, 2020, Lin submitted request number 20-3746 for reports regarding a June 1, 2020 OPD's allegation that protesters had made and/or thrown Molotov cocktails at the protests in the wake of the George Floyd killing. Lin sought records of any arrests made by OPD of individuals who were allegedly making Molotov cocktails to verify OPD's so far unsubstantiated claims. OPD has not sent Lin its standard boilerplate response; instead, it has merely noted a "due date change" three times, saying its due date is now August 24, 2020. No records have been produced in response to this request. A true and correct copy of this request is included herewith as Exhibit 7.
- 66. On June 30, 2019, Lin submitted request number 20-3792 seeking text messages to and from Defendant Manheimer on May 30, 2020, the height of anti-police violence protests in the wake of the George Floyd killing. OPD has not sent Lin a response. No records have been produced in response to this request. A true and correct copy of this request is included herewith as Exhibit 8.
- 67. On the same day, Lin also submitted request number 20-3818 for records related to a fire that broke out at 800 Broadway as a result of a tear gas canister that landed on its roof during protests downtown. OPD has not sent Lin its standard boilerplate response; instead, it has merely noted a "due date change" twice, saying its due date is now August 24, 2020. No records have been produced in response to this request. A true and correct copy of this request is included herewith as Exhibit 9.

Brian Krans

- 68. Krans is an East Bay journalist who regularly reports on crime, first responders, and public health in Oakland.
- 69. On June 13, 2018, Krans submitted PRA request number 18-1454 for any police reports that reference a stolen or missing "Fire Fyter" brand safe from 2013 to the present. Krans has not received a response to this request. A true and correct copy of this request is included herewith as Exhibit 10.

- On January 1, 2019, Krans fell victim to an armed robbery and assault in Oakland. On January 10, 2019, Krans submitted request number 19-180 for the police report associated with the robbery in order to process an insurance claim. On January 22, 2019, Krans received OPD's boilerplate standard response, indicating OPD would extend its deadline thirty days until February 21, 2019 to respond to his request. Since that time, Krans has not received any further communication from OPD nor has he received a copy of the police report. A true and correct copy of this request is included herewith as Exhibit 11.
- 71. On January 10, 2019, Krans submitted PRA request number 19-178 for the files used to compile Oakland's crime rate data in 2016, 2017 and 2018. Krans has not received a response to this request. A true and correct copy of this request is included herewith as Exhibit 12.
- 72. The same day, Krans submitted PRA request number 19-179 for all reports of robberies that OPD responded to in or around the Fruitvale Bart station. Krans has not received a response to this request. A true and correct copy of this request is included herewith as Exhibit 13.
- 73. On September 17, 2019, Krans submitted request number 19-4637 for all records related to street closures on account of "sideshows" from September 1, 2019 and onward (a sixteen day range at the time of the request). The request was originally assigned to the Department of Transportation. Within one day, both the Department of Transportation and the Department of Public Works responded and said they had no responsive documents. The request was reassigned to OPD, which the City of Oakland informed Krans was responsible for the various closures responsive to his records request. On September 27, 2019, OPD sent Krans its boilerplate response and extended its deadline to October 28, 2019. Since that time, Krans has not received any further communication from OPD nor has he received any responsive documents. A true and correct copy of this request is included herewith as Exhibit 14.

74. On May 18, 2020, Krans submitted request number 20-2576 for the dispatch logs of the OPD helicopter. These records would help illuminate when OPD deems it necessary to dispatch its helicopter, whose cacophonous presence is distressing to many residents within its flight path. OPD has not sent Krans its standard boilerplate response; instead, it has merely noted a "due date change" three times, saying its due date is now August 24, 2020. No records have been produced in response to this request. A true and correct copy of this request is included herewith as Exhibit 15.

Michael Katz and Oakland Privacy

- 75. As part of their efforts to understand government surveillance practices in Oakland, Katz routinely submits PRA requests to OPD on behalf of himself and Oakland Privacy.

 OPD has failed to provide a proper determination to a number of these requests.
- 76. On March 18, 2019, Katz submitted request number 19-1386, seeking records related to the police shooting of skyline high school student Alan Blueford. OPD has changed its due date fourteen times in response to this request. While OPD purported to produce documents on May 3, 2019, none of those documents were responsive to Katz's request, but were instead responsive to another police shooting. A true and correct copy of this request is included herewith as Exhibit 16.
- 77. On June 12, 2019, Katz submitted request number 19-3007, seeking the detailed forensic reports from ShotSpotter for four officer-involved shootings. OPD has changed its due date to respond to this request thirteen times. Katz has never received any other communication from OPD concerning this request and has not received any documents. A true and correct copy of this request is included herewith as Exhibit 17.
- 78. On June 25, 2019, Katz submitted request number 19-3171, seeking copies of Human Trafficking Monthly Reports from 2014 to 2019. OPD has changed its due date to respond to this request twelve times. Katz has never received any other communication from OPD concerning this request and has not received any documents. A true and correct copy of this request is included herewith as Exhibit 18.

related 911 calls (request number 18-474), (4) data on the number of 911 calls and the percentage of such calls deemed non-emergencies (request number 18-2013), (5) data on bicycle thefts and registrations in the city (request number 19-174), (6) cumulative monthly homicide reports (request number 19-592), (7) requests for documents related to Palantir technologies (request number 19-3334), (8) information concerning the department's missing firearms (request number 19-3521), and (9) documents related to the affordable housing group Moms4Housing (request number 19-6075).

- 85. OPD also fails to provide simple requests for incident reports, many of which are requested in order to file and verify insurance claims, as is the case with Plaintiff Krans's January 10, 2019 request. OPD's failure to respond to these requests compounds the injury of being victimized by crime in Oakland as it frustrates crime victims' ability to collect insurance money for stolen property.
- 86. OPD has also failed to respond to requests from activists, including but not limited to a request from Jewish Voices for Peace asking for documents concerning a taxpayer funded-trip by Oakland's then-police chief to Israel to attend a counterterrorism seminar (request number 19-1741) and a request from the California Immigrant Policy Center regarding Lexipol documents (request number 19-1527).

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

- 87. This action is brought on behalf of Plaintiffs individually, as citizens, as taxpayers and, pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 382, on behalf of all individuals who have submitted PRA requests to OPD and not yet received a determination (the "Class"). For purposes of clarity, this includes all individuals who have not received a determination from OPD as well as those who have received only a boilerplate response from OPD.
- 88. The Class period begins three years before the date of the filing of this Complaint and Petition and continues to the present. Excluded from the Class are the claims at issue in BondGraham, et al. v. City of Oakland, et al. (case number not yet assigned), Alameda Superior Court, August 17, 2020.

- 89. This action is properly brought against Defendants as a class action for the following reasons: the Class is composed of thousands of individuals and entities that are geographically and widely disbursed; the Class is so numerous that joinder of all members is impracticable; the disposition of Plaintiffs' and Class members' claims in a class action will provide substantial benefits to both the parties and the Court; the Class is readily ascertainable from Defendants' own records and the NextRequest platform; and there are well-defined common questions of law and fact because the rights of each Class member were infringed or violated in the same fashion based on Defendants' failure to provide timely PRA determinations.
- 90. Defendants breaches arise from a common core of conduct, namely OPD's pattern, practice or policy of failing to provide timely determinations in response to PRA requests.
- 91. Notice to the Class, if necessary, can be provided through the records of Defendants, who maintain a list of all PRA requests and PRA requesters, including contact information of all PRA requesters.
- 92. Questions of law or fact common to the Class predominate over questions that may affect a particular Class member. Some common questions include:
 - a. Whether OPD as a matter of practice or policy fails to timely provide a determination in response to PRA requests.
 - b. Whether OPD as a matter of practice or policy fails to promptly provide records after it has determined that responsive records exist.
 - c. Whether OPD's boilerplate PRA response is inadequate under the PRA and the Oakland Sunshine Ordinance.
- 93. Plaintiffs' claims are typical of the claims of the members of the Class in that both Plaintiffs and Class members submitted PRA requests to OPD that required a determination within 10 days, or within 24 days in unusual circumstances as provided by statute. Plaintiffs have not received a timely determination from OPD regarding their requests, including whether OPD has responsive records, when such records may be disclosed, and whether OPD will invoke any specific exemptions to disclosure. Plaintiffs have also not promptly received documents in response to their requests.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

Writ of Mandate Under California Public Records Act

- 101. Plaintiffs and the Class incorporate by reference the allegations contained in the preceding and subsequent paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.
- 102. The PRA creates mandatory, non-discretionary duties that OPD must adhere to when responding to PRA request.
- 103. The PRA requires OPD to provide a determination in response to PRA requests within 10 days of receiving such a request, unless a statutory exemption is invoked which enables OPD to extend the deadline 14 days. The determination must include a determination whether OPD is in possession of disclosable records, whether any statutory exemption to disclosure exists, and an estimate of when records will be produced.
- 104. OPD must also "promptly" produce records when it has determined it is in possession of responsive records not subject to a disclosure exemption.
- 105. OPD has failed to do so in thousands of cases. It routinely provides only a boilerplate response that does not specify what exemptions apply, whether documents will be produced and the estimated date for doing so. Oftentimes, it provides no response at all.
- 106. Issuance of a peremptory writ compelling Defendants to perform their duties under the PRA is required because there exists no plain, speedy, and adequate remedy in the ordinary course of law would protect Plaintiffs' and the Class' interests.
- 107. OPD must clear its backlog of outstanding PRA requests and timely respond to PRA requests moving forward.
- 108. Plaintiffs seek entry of a peremptory writ compelling OPD to (1) respond to its backlog of requests that have not received a proper determination, (2) promptly produce responsive records in response to these requests where non-exempt records exist, and (3) timely provide lawful records determinations moving forward.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

Writ of Mandate Under Oakland Sunshine Ordinance

- 109. Plaintiffs and the Class incorporate by reference the allegations contained in the preceding and subsequent paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.
- 110. The Oakland Sunshine Ordinance creates mandatory, non-discretionary duties that OPD must adhere to when responding to PRA or Oakland Sunshine Ordinance request.
- 111. The Oakland Sunshine Ordinance requires OPD to provide a determination in response to PRA or Oakland Sunshine Ordinance requests within 10 days of receiving such a request, unless a statutory exemption is invoked which enables OPD to extend the deadline 14 days. The determination must include a determination whether OPD is in possession of disclosable records, a written explanation of any statutory exemption to disclosure that exists, and an estimate of when records will be produced.
- 112. OPD must also "promptly" produce records when it has determined it is in possession of responsive records not subject to a disclosure exemption.
- 113. OPD has failed to do so in thousands of cases. It routinely provides only a boilerplate response that does not specify what exemptions apply, whether documents will be produced and the estimated date for doing so. Oftentimes, it provides no response at all.
- 114. Issuance of a peremptory writ compelling Defendants to perform their duties under the PRA is required because there exists no plain, speedy, and adequate remedy in the ordinary course of law would protect Plaintiffs' and the Class' interests.
- 115. OPD must clear its backlog of outstanding PRA requests and timely respond to PRA requests moving forward.
- 116. Plaintiffs seek entry of a peremptory writ compelling OPD to (1) respond to its backlog of requests that have not received a proper determination, (2) promptly produce responsive records in response to these requests where non-exempt records exist, and (3) timely provide lawful records determinations moving forward.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

Taxpayer Suit — Declaratory and Injunctive Relief Under C.C.P. § 526A (Morris, Lin and Krans Against all Defendants)

- 117. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference the allegations contained in the preceding and subsequent paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.
- 118. Any person who pays taxes to the City of Oakland may seek a judgment to restrain and/or prevent any illegal expenditure of, waste of, or injury to, the funds or other property of a local agency.
- 119. Morris, Lin and Krans all pay taxes to the City of Oakland and have paid such taxes within the last year, including sales and use taxes.
- 120. The City of Oakland, OPD, Chief Manheimer and Reiskin are wasting public funds by failing to timely provide PRA determinations within the statutorily-prescribed timeframes under both the PRA and Oakland Sunshine Ordinance, and by failing to promptly produce documents where they have determined that responsive documents exist.
- 121. Plaintiffs Morris, Lin and Krans pray for an injunction to compel Defendants to provide a determination on all outstanding PRA requests over the last three years; to promptly produce records in response to these requests where Defendants determine that responsive records exist; and to require OPD to meet the statutory deadlines for providing records determinations going forward.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Declaratory Relief under the PRA

- 122. Plaintiffs and the Class incorporate by reference the allegations contained in the preceding and subsequent paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.
- 123. OPD has acted and continues to act in violation of the PRA by maintaining policies and practices that violate the mandatory statutory deadlines and notice requirements under the PRA, Gov't Code § 6253(c).
